

İTÜ

Istanbul Technical University Robotics Olympics 2016

General Rules of Competitions

- All robots must carry their own power supplies.
- All robots must be autonomous except the innovative category.
- The robots which have inappropriate names will not be registered. The robot can be registered with another name.
- The robots which fail the robot specifications in the categories, can not participate to the competitions.
- Protests about locations of the tracks or light levels of the lounges are not considered.
- The robots which damage the tracks are disqualified from the competitions, if they are participated in, with losing the matches in Micro Sumo.
- ITURO Crew do not carry the responsibility if the electromechanical systems on the tracks that damage the robots, protests are not considered.
- Robots that cannot fulfill the success criteria will not be included to the classification.
- Before or after the competitions, competitors who humiliate the opponents or the referees, are disqualified from all the categories they participate.
- In a situation of which is not specified in the rules, one and only authorized person is the referee of the competition.
- Also the “General Rules” are applied in the organization.
- Istanbul Technical University Robotics Olympics crew, Control and Automation Society, reserves all rights to make changes in the rules.